

CineGlobe International Film Festival 2022
Short Film Competition
RULES

Article 1: The 2021 CineGlobe International Film Festival will take place 23-27 June 2021, at CERN and other venues in the area. The event address is CineGlobe, CERN, Esplanade des Particules, 1211 Geneva 23, Switzerland.

Article 2: The CineGlobe festival includes four competitions. Each short film can be submitted to only one competition. All competitions are open to films made by amateurs and professionals alike and that have not been submitted to previous editions of the festival. People already associated with the festival and members of the juries may not participate in the competitions.

Article 3: The Fiction competition is open to fiction films up to twenty (20) minutes in length, credits excluded, completed since 1 January 2019.

Article 4: The Documentary competition is open to documentary films up to thirty-five (35) minutes in length, credits excluded, completed since 1 January 2019.

Article 5: The Youth Film competition is open to films up to ten (10) minutes in length, credits excluded, of any genre, completed since 1 January 2019. Films submitted to this competition must be suitable for all ages.

Article 6: The Immersive/Virtual Reality (VR) competition is open to virtual reality projects (either 180 or 360 degrees) compatible with Oculus Go, Quest, and VR Cardboard, up to 35 minutes in length, credits excluded, completed since 1 January 2019.

Article 7: The theme of the 2022 edition of the festival is "Parallel Worlds". Submitted fiction and documentary films must adhere to the festival theme and CineGlobe's mission (see below). The Immersive/ VR and the Youth Film competitions are open to all suitable films and projects regardless of theme, so long as they are inspired by science in some way.

Parallel Worlds

There are nearly infinite parallel worlds: Science/art. Fiction/documentary. Real-life/virtual reality. Privilege/poverty. Past/future. Freedom of movement/closed borders. Original/translation. Analog/digital. These diversities of perspective may, at first glance, seem opposed to each other. The very definition of parallel implies two elements that never converge. However, looking closer, we can always find commonalities beyond the contradictions. Whether it is in the creativity necessary for inspiration that exists for both scientists and artists, the universality of love between humans regardless of their experience, or the astonishing similarities between apparently disparate species - such as veins in a tree leaf and the network of capillaries in an animal - parallel worlds are everywhere and, above all, ripe for discovery.

Article 8: Films and projects must be submitted to the festival competitions via the "Short Film Depot" website (<http://www.shortfilmdepot.com/>). Entrants can monitor the status of their submissions through that website. By submitting a film, the entrant agrees to all rules governing the festival.

Article 9: The languages of the festival are English and French. All competing films containing dialogue must be in either English or French, or be subtitled in either English or French. Entrants give implicit consent for their films to be subtitled in English and French without requiring prior approval. Any film submitted in languages other than English or French, and which does not contain either English or French subtitles, will not be considered.

Article 10: The deadline for submissions to the fiction, documentary, and youth competitions is 1 April 2022. The deadline for submissions to the immersive competition is 18 April 2022. Films sent after the deadline or which are longer than the maximum length for the competition will not be considered.

Article 11: After registering a film with Short Film Depot (<http://www.shortfilmdepot.com/>) and subscribing it to a festival competition, a preview copy must be uploaded in accordance with Short Film Depot's technical specifications, with any subtitles burned into the film. Please note that DVDs are no longer accepted.

Article 12: The festival programme will be selected by a committee named by the festival organisers, who reserve the right to make changes to the selection committee at any time without notice. Membership of the selection committee will not be communicated and is not open to appeal.

Article 13: Entrants whose films are selected will be contacted by email and will be able to see the selected status of their films on the Short Film Depot website. The entrants of selected films will be asked to supply a high-quality file copy of their film to the specifications requested. Analogue formats and cassettes will not be accepted. If the high-quality file copy is not supplied within four weeks and/or does not meet the technical specifications, the organisers reserve the right to either project the copy of the film already provided for selection or to remove the film from the festival programme.

Article 14: CineGlobe will not provide feedback on submitted films.

Article 15: There will be two awards per competition. The "Jury Prize" for Best Film in each competition will be attributed by a jury of professionals designated by the festival direction. The CineGlobe Audience Award will be attributed according to public balloting during the festival screenings and/or the online viewing period. The deliberations of the jury for each competition will be presided over by a President of the Jury and are not open to the public. Jury decisions are final and without appeal.

Article 16: All the awards will be announced during a ceremony at the end of the festival. The festival reserves the right to modify any of the awards and/or prizes at any time and without prior notice.

Article 17: All entrants grant CineGlobe the right, in perpetuity, to use extracts from all selected films, in advertising, promotion and screenings for the festival on international television, radio, online, and in cinemas. Extracts will be limited to 10% of the total duration of the film. No submitted film will be used for commercial purposes.

Article 18: All entrants give to the festival the right, in perpetuity, to use all submitted films partially or in their entirety in future public and private screenings by the CineGlobe and its partners.

Article 19: All entrants assume for the organisers and the jury all responsibility against third party claims concerning the originality of works submitted. The organisers of CineGlobe accept no liability for copyright infringement associated with works submitted to the festival's competitions. In addition, CineGlobe reserves the right to seek damages from entrants who submit work for which they do not have exhibition rights.

Article 20: The presence of entrants during the festival, especially during the award ceremony on Saturday, 2 July 2022, is greatly desired. However, it is not required for participation in the competitions and will not affect the jury's deliberations.

Article 21: CineGlobe reserves the right to change these rules at any time. In addition, the organisers reserve the right to cancel the festival without notice in the event of conditions beyond their control. All changes will be communicated via the website <http://cineglobe.ch/> and CineGlobe's social media channels.
