

HACKING HATE

Open air screening

HACKING HATE

by Simon Klose

THURSDAY 3 JULY 2025 – FROM 20:00

Domaine de Penthes, Pregny-Chambésy (TPG Bus 20 - Pregny Penthes)

FREE ENTRANCE

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

THE FILM

Hacking Hate, by Simon Klose (2024, 87min)

A Swedish journalist, My Vingren is renowned for her in-depth investigations. In the documentary Hacking Hate, she infiltrates extremists movements online to witness the racist rhetoric and tactics of white supremacists. Meanwhile, she probes the platforms' internal regulation mechanisms. Venturing deeper into the world of online hatred, she finds that her personal life is turned upside down.

Original version (Swedish, Norwegian, English) - English and French subtitles

PROGRAMME

Bring your own towel, deckchair and picnic if you wish.

The United Nations Security Club will propose snacks and non-alcoholic beverages. The Club will also be offering two activities to the public: first aid and self defence.

20:00 Door opening, snacks, refreshments and activities

20:45 Discussion on the issues surrounding online hate speech with Birgit Kainz, Coordinator, Civic Space Unit, UN Human Rights

21:30 Screening of Hacking Hate

23:00 End of the event